Plaintiff is a prisoner at Perry Correctional Institution in Pelzer, South Carolina, and files this case pro se under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.¹ Plaintiff complains that Defendants, all correctional institution employees, have defamed him by calling him a “snitch.” As the complaint fails to state a claim under § 1983, this case should be dismissed.

Pro Se and In Forma Pauperis Review

Under established local procedure in this judicial district, a careful review has been made of the pro se complaint herein pursuant to the procedural provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915. This review has been conducted in light of the following precedents: Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 324-25 (1989); Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976); Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972); and Gordon v. Leeke, 574 F.2d 1147 (4th Cir.).

The complaint sub judice has been filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, which permits an indigent litigant to commence an action in federal court without paying the administrative costs of proceeding with the lawsuit. To protect against possible abuses of this privilege, the statute allows a district court to dismiss the case upon a finding that the action “fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted” or is “frivolous or malicious.” § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i), (ii). A finding of frivolity can be made where the complaint “lacks an arguable basis either in law or in fact.” Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25, 31 (1992). Hence, under § 1915(e)(2)(B), a claim based on a meritless legal theory may be dismissed sua sponte. Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319 (1989); Allison v. Kyle, 66 F.3d 71 (5th Cir. 1995).

This Court is required to liberally construe pro se documents, Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976), holding them to a less stringent standard than those drafted by attorneys, Hughes v. Rowe, 449 U.S. 9 (1980) (per curiam). Even under this less stringent standard, however, the pro se complaint is subject to summary dismissal. The mandated liberal construction afforded to pro se pleadings means that if the Court can reasonably read the pleadings to state a valid claim on which the plaintiff could prevail, it should do so, but a district court may not rewrite a petition to include claims that were never presented, Barnett v. Hargett, 174 F.3d 1128, 1133 (10th Cir. 1999), or construct the plaintiff's legal arguments for him, Small v. Endicott, 998 F.2d 411, 417-18 (7th Cir. 1993), or “conjure up questions never squarely presented” to the Court, Beaudett v. City of Hampton, 775 F.2d 1274, 1278 (4th Cir. 1985).

Discussion

Plaintiff complains that Defendants have defamed him by telling other inmates he is a “snitch.” ECF No. 1 at 4. He feels this places him in danger from other inmates, though he does not report any injury as a result of this perception of danger. Plaintiff alleges the defamation occurred after he refused to submit to a strip search in December 2010, which Defendants informed him was necessary in order for him to take a shower. ECF No. 1 at 6. The complaint reflects the threatened strip search was a one-time incident, and Plaintiff does not allege he has been denied a shower since. He seeks monetary damages for the injury to his reputation.

This complaint is filed pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, which "'is not itself a source of substantive rights,' but merely provides 'a method for vindicating federal rights elsewhere conferred.'" Albright v. Oliver, 510 U.S. 266, 271(1994) (quoting Baker v. McCollan, 443 U.S. 137, 144 n.3 (1979)). A civil action under § 1983 allows "a party who has been deprived of a federal right under the color of state law to seek relief." City of Monterey v. Del Monte Dunes at Monterey, Ltd., 526 U.S. 687, 707. To state a claim under § 1983, a plaintiff must allege two essential elements: (1) that a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States was violated, and (2) that the alleged violation was committed by a person acting under the color of state law. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988). Plaintiff fails to state a claim for relief under § 1983 on the first prong of this test, as § 1983 "cannot be used as a vehicle for asserting a claim of defamation." Wildauer v. Frederick County, 993 F.2d 369, 373 (4th Cir. 1993). Any defamation suffered by Plaintiff would not be actionable under § 1983 because it does not implicate federal constitutional or statutory rights; "[d]efamation, by itself, is a tort actionable under the laws of most states, but not a constitutional deprivation." Siegert v. Gilley, 500 U.S. 226, 233 (1991). Accordingly, Plaintiff has failed to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

Recommendation

Accordingly, it is recommended that the District Court dismiss the complaint in this case without prejudice. Plaintiff's attention is directed to the important notice on the following page.
